Broderick Review Implementation Working Group Chair's Communique No 3: 27 April 2018

Purpose: The Broderick Review Implementation Working Group has been established to support the development and implementation of a JCU Plan of Action for the Elimination of Sexual Harassment and Sexual Assamultse to the recommendations of the Broderick Rew. The Group consists of a crospresentation of staff and students.

The Broderick Review Implementation Working Group met for the thintime in 2018 on April 23 The Chair welcomed Dan Christie, Head of Engineering, to the Working Group.

The Working Group focused attention on two hematic areas of the Plan of Action elated to Policy and Procedure, and Communications.

Policy and Procedures: Recommendations 11, 12, 15, 20, 21,–27heWorkingGroup reviewed the draft

Sexual Assaulted Sexual Harassment flowcharts and agreed to provide further input to the Chief of Staff on the design of interfaces (digital and real) that sit between policy and procedure and user groups.

Communication: Recommendation 34 The Working Group provided advice surpporting staff and students who have formal and informal positions as key comimutes within JCU.

The group reviewed the development of key messages, and a program of activities, where those messages can be delivered and discussed

The Working Group will next meet in Jun During May working group members will be engaged inconsultation to progress decisions on policy and procedures, and communication. In addition the Chair will meet with students and Deputy Vice Chancellors, Deans, Directors, ramblice Chancellors to consult of CU's progress

The Working Group will continue update the JCU community but progress by way of a Chair's Communique after each meeting T(re)-Group (re)-60(r)633 ([1)(8)2gn-9e61(re)+2007cfc-996(de)e.3) (rodhe). mo)-93 [((e)nu)-0.8 to)-59e)-g.-9.6,)65