Bachelor of Arts - Bachelor of Laws

✔ Reap the benefits of a legal qualification boosted by the complementary practical and theoretical knowledge of an arts degree. This five year joint degree qualifies you for admission to practise law in Queensland, and provides you with the analytic and communication skills of the Bachelor of Arts.

✔ You will learn from expert lecturers and benefit from small class sizes. A JCU Arts-Law degree provides you with in-depth understanding of the concepts, principles, and values of the law, enhanced by the critical analysis, problem solving and research capabilities of the arts and humanities.

✔ If you wish to practice law, you should obtain further information from the Barristers' and Solicitors' Admission Boards.
